In November we got creative in our performing arts clubs. Ana took the kids to the stage in the PAC room for singing club, Brittany taught new improvisation and drama games and Marcus got the kids laughing with lots of mad libs. The kids really enjoyed an opportunity to express themselves in this way.

In December we will be celebrating all that winter has to bring us, from cooler weather to festive Holidays and everything in between. We will make lots of Holiday themed art projects, do some yummy baking projects, and reflect on the value of togetherness at this time of year.
